RHEUMATIO STRUP CO., JACKSON, MICH.
GENTS: For years I have been greatly afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism, the pair and soreness of the joints at times being almost unbearable; could move about only with the use of crutches. In addition to this my stomach became badly diseased, and neuralgia set in which threatened to end my day. A traveling man stopping with me gave quite a history of Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup and the peculiarities of its combination, which induced me to try it. I have taken six bottles, and no act in my life affords me greater satisfaction than in writing you that I am a well man.

I am a well man.

I believe it to be the best remedy ever formulated. A. J. Bowler, Proprietor, Strangiers on One Side --- Campbell on the Other.

The name of George B. Cox is entwined for all time with that of J. B. Foraker.

The question among thousands of voters of Ohio is, "Who is Cox?"

We will answer. His rise in politics has been phenomenally rapid. He began driving a delivery wagon. Next he is heard of as a keno roller in a gambling hell of the Queen City, and finally as the proprietor of a notorious saloon. Meanwhile he had developed a tasto for politics, and gradually his influence over the rough and vicious element became supreme. No man could be nominated for office by the Republican conventions without the Cox support. Re-publicans of the better element charge that he sat up as a political broker and sold places on the ticket to the highest bidder. Part of the fund thus gained would be divided with the "Stranglers" whom he had sent to the convention, and the remainder he would keep him-

Of all the Republicans in Hamilton County Governor Foraker chose this po-Iftical boss and chief Strangler as his personal representative. Two years ago he appointed him to the most lucrative and important position within his gift -the State of inspectorship. Under a man of Cox's political genius this place s supposed to be worth all the way from $7,000 to $15,000 per year.

Last fall Cox forced himself upon the Republican ticket as a candidate for county clerk. The Lincoln club, the reputable Republican club of Cincin-nati, bolted his nomination and made the issue "Cox and Foraker" on the one side, and "honesty and decent methods" in politics on the other. On this issue, with Governor Foraker moving Heaven and earth in the interest of Cox's election, he ran 7,000 votes behind the ticket, and his Democratic competitor, Prof. John B. Peaslee, with the aid of honest Republicans, was elected by over 3,500 majority. This fall the issue is the same, but broadened so as to take in the whole State. The same conditions pertain in every part of Ohio as in Hamilton Coun-

The people must choose between the side and James E. Campbell, who has no entangling alliances and is to be judged only by his record in Congress, on the other. We believe they will follow the example of the Lincoln club, of Cincin-

MESSES. CAMPBELL, Marquis and Lewis. on the Democratic ticket, went to the Warren County fair at Lebanon, and were given an ovation by citizens and disgusted Republicans. Governor Foraker was billed to appear there the next day, but his courage failed him and he did not keep his appointment. As Warren County owes all its troubles to a third term, sensible Republicans thought Foraker had better stay away. There is something in that third term business after all that the people do not approvo

Ur to the hour when our presses com-mence moving Governor Foraker had not answered Mr. Campbell's question of why de drove H. P. Lloyd out of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home. The Governor ought really to clear this matter off the slate in order that he may attend to the cases of Grosvenor, Horton and Doyle.

GENERAL BOB KENNEDY Suys he will not take the stump for Foraker unless he is compelled to. He says Foraker lied to him and promised to help him secure the nomination for Governor, and he can not support such a man for re-election.

The Republican platform adopted at Columbus and Cincinnati declares in favor of home rule for Iraland, but aft of eighteen men on the Hamilton County ticket name are Germans and of one is an Islandan.

MARK the prediction! The Foraker Republicans will be the treb inch in Ohio to demand the repeal of the present election laws if they are beaten in NoElectrical Water Power.

If the project relating to a new canal at Rheinfelden, Germany, be carried out an enormous stimulus will be given to electrical engineering, since the power rendered available through the construction of this canal will amount to not less than 11,000 horse power, and will have to be transmitted electrically to Basel, Sackinger and other distant places. The plans are ready, the capital is available, but the concession has not yet been obtained. If it is obtained in time work will begin in the coming autumn, and the whole undertaking will be completed in 1891. The length of the canal is 11 miles; its width, 185 feet, and there will be erected a turbine house containing twenty-three turbines, each of 750 horse power. Each turbine will drive its own generator. The pressure adopted will be sufficiently high to enable the distribution of power to be effected economically within a distance of fifteen miles. The power of the turbines being 17,000 horse power, a total of 11,000 horse power will be available to the consumers. - Exchange.

Mas Lee. "Yes, and last week you said you wished I could manage to look as stylish as Mrs. Allen,—and she makes all her own clothes. But she has what I haven't."

Mrs. Lee. "Wall she gets all of her information from the Magazine they take. I admit that she knows all that is going on, and is bright and entertaining in conversation: but I could do as well as she does if I had the same source of information. She lent me the last number of her Magazine lately, and I learned more in one hour a reading, about various social matters and the topics of the dry, than I would pick up in amonth by my occasional chats with friends. It certainly covers every topic of interest, from the news of the day down to the details of housekeeping; and excrything is so beautifully llustrated, too. Every time Mamic goes over to the Allens' she comes back and teases me to get you to take Demore's Family Magazine, as the stories are segood. Even the boys watch for it every month, as a place is found for them also in its pages; and Mr. Allen swears by it. It is really wonderful how it suits every member of the family!"
